STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

The purpose of this Board Rule is to establish Board policy relating to the establishment and funding of student publications.

The Student Life & Leadership Department may sponsor a student newsletter and a magazine utilizing resources available for student activities. The newsletter will serve as a means for distributing information of interest to students and the public. The magazine will serve as a medium for students to publish creative writing and art. An employee of the College will be designated by the Vice President of Student Affairs & Enrollment Management to serve as advisor for each of these publications.
