6Hx19-6.03 STUDENT FEES

The purpose of this Board Policy is to establish guidelines and procedures relating to student fees.

The District Board of Trustees shall establish, approve, publish, collect, and budget student fees in accordance with applicable federal and state laws and regulations. The Board shall establish payment deadlines no later than the last day of the applicable drop/add period.

All tuition, fees, and user charges shall be authorized by applicable law and shall comply with statutory limits and requirements.

The President is authorized to develop administrative procedures governing the assessment, collection, payment, deferral, waiver, and refund of student fees, consistent with applicable law and Board-approved fee schedules.
